

21st July 2010

USA MANAGEMENT CHANGE

SomnoMed's CEO Ralf Barschow announced today at the Company's North American Head Office in Denton, Texas that EVP North America John Truitt had resigned for personal reasons.

Mr Barschow said, "John has been with the Company from the start of the operation. We thank him for his contribution to build our USA business over the last four years. We wish John the best for his future endeavours".

SomnoMed North America will announce the appointment of a new EVP in due course. In the interim, Mr Barschow has assumed direct responsibility for the US business.